

Packing Cheat Sheet

TRINA & PIERRE

How to Pack for a Long Vacation?

Congratulations on your new adventure! Making the decision to travel the world for a few weeks, months or a whole year can be one of the most exciting yet daunting decisions that you have ever made in your entire life. One of the questions that we get asked the most is, how did you pack your entire life into one suitcase?

We created this guide to help you get started!

What's your #1 Essential?

"Lemongrass Oil"

I always take a small bottle with me when I'm traveling to tropical climates. I took it to the rainforest in Borneo and it worked wonders. Bonus, it's 100% and environmental friendly.

Trina

"Merino wool t-shirt"

It's weird but I could spend a whole week with one t-shirt! It wouldn't get wrinkly/moldy/smelly and would dry in seconds. Must have!
